

HORSE SHOW TURN OUT

Welcome to all new Eclipse Equestrian members!

For the new clients, this is a helpful list of the do's and don'ts at the horse show. For existing clients this is just a reminder. Eclipse Equestrian is a show barn and we want to present ourselves accordingly.

RIDER TURN OUT

- Hair is to be put up neatly inside your helmet. ALWAYS USE A HAIRNET. If you do not know how, please ask trainer or fellow members how to properly put your hair over your ears.
- Helmets need to be either GPA, Charles Owen, or Samshield. Please check with Trainer otherwise.
- Must wear black gloves if competing in medal, equitation and hunter classes.
- ALWAYS wear a belt and make sure shirt is tucked in.
- Boots are to be polished.
- Show jackets and breeches to be clean and nicely fitted.
 - Hunters: coats must be traditional in color and style, beige breeches only.
 - Equitations: coats must be black or navy, beige breeches only.
 - Jumpers: jacket requirements determined by each show, white breeches for any classes with sponsors present, coloured breeches ok in early week classes but not encouraged.
 - Jumper shirts: all shirts must have a collar, cover armpits and CANNOT be low cut.
 - No full seat breeches. Knee patch or euro seat only.
 - Shadbelly's are encouraged for hunter classics and derbies (with beige breeches, stock tie and pin).

HORSE TURN OUT

- All horses should have hoof polish on every time they are under saddle.
- Muzzles, feathers, and ears should be clipped before coming to the show.
- Horses should be tidy and clean, with number on when out of stall.
- Bring cooler or scrim to the ring in case you need to wait ringside.
- Martingales:
 - Hunters: standing martingales only.
 - Jumpers: standing martingales only permitted up to and including 1.10m, running martingales and breast plates ok, other martingales must be discussed with trainer first.
 - Equitations: each class specifies martingale restrictions, be sure to check before entering ring! No breast plates or breast collars in any equitation or medal, simple leather running and standing martingales only.
 - Flat classes: No martingales.
- Boots:
 - Hunters: No boots.
 - Equitations: Leather boots only.
 - Jumpers and schooling: Black, brown or leather only.
- Saddle pads:
 - Hunters: Full hunter pad only.
 - Equitations: Full hunter pad only.
 - Jumpers: White, grey or black square pads only (Eclipse Equestrian pads preferred) with appropriate half pad.
- Bonnets: body of bonnet must be subtle in colour. Prefer black bonnets.
